

ZOOLOGIST LINGO

habitat	The place where a plant or animal lives.
community	Different populations together in a habitat form this.
population	When living things of the same type live together in an area.
physical adaptation	Refers to the physical characteristics of an animal that helps it to survive in the environment in which it lives. (body)
behavioural adaptation	Are the ways that an animal acts or behaves in order to survive. (action)
carnivore	An animal that eats only meat.

herbivore	An animal that eats only plants.	 HERBIVORES omnivore	An animal that eats both plants and animals.	 OMNIVORES
predator	Animals that hunt and kill other animals for food.
prey	The animals that predators hunt, kill, and eat.
scavenger	An animal that eats dead animals and bones.
decomposer	Organisms that break down dead plants or animals for food.	 Worm Mushroom Insects Bacteria

